HUMAN RESOURCES POLICY HANDBOOK

RAG Demonstration Document

Document ID: HR-POL-2026-001

Version: 2.1

Effective Date: 1 January 2026

Document Owner: Human Resources Department

Review Cycle: Annual

Purpose

This handbook defines standard workplace policies covering leave, attendance, remote work, expenses, employee conduct, and performance management. It is intended as a fictional sample document for demonstrating document retrieval and Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG) systems.

Confidentiality: Internal Use Only

The contents of this sample document are fictional and should not be treated as legal, employment, payroll, or compliance advice.

1. Leave and Time-Off Policy

1.1 Annual Leave

Full-time employees are eligible for 24 working days of annual leave per calendar year. Leave is accrued monthly at 2 working days per completed month of service. Employees joining after the first month of the calendar year receive a prorated entitlement.

Employees should submit annual leave requests at least 5 working days before the planned start date. Managers are expected to approve or reject requests within 2 working days.

1.2 Sick Leave

Employees may take up to 12 working days of paid sick leave per calendar year. If an employee is absent for more than 2 consecutive working days, HR may request supporting medical documentation in accordance with applicable company procedures.

1.3 Emergency Leave

Up to 3 working days of emergency leave may be granted for unexpected family or personal emergencies. The employee should notify their manager as soon as reasonably possible.

1.4 Public Holidays

Company offices observe the public holidays published for the employee's assigned work location. Employees required to work on a designated company holiday must follow the applicable manager approval and compensatory-time process.

RAG Retrieval Keywords

annual leave, 24 days, accrual, 2 days per month, sick leave, 12 days, medical documentation, emergency leave, public holiday

2. Attendance and Remote Work Policy

2.1 Standard Working Hours

Standard working hours are 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, Monday through Friday, including a one-hour meal break. Individual teams may establish different schedules when business requirements or customer coverage require them.

Employees are expected to record attendance through the company's approved attendance system. Repeated unexplained attendance discrepancies may be reviewed by the employee's manager and HR.

2.2 Remote Work Eligibility

Eligible employees may work remotely up to 3 days per week with manager approval. Employees must remain reachable during agreed working hours and maintain a suitable environment for confidential company work.

2.3 Remote Work Requests

Regular remote-work arrangements should be requested at least 2 business days in advance. Same-day remote work may be approved for urgent circumstances at the manager's discretion.

2.4 Equipment and Security

Company devices must use approved security controls, including screen locking and multi-factor authentication where enabled. Confidential documents must not be printed or left unattended in shared public locations.

RAG Retrieval Keywords

working hours, 9 AM, 6 PM, attendance, remote work, 3 days, manager approval, equipment, security, MFA

3. Business Expenses and Reimbursement

3.1 Eligible Expenses

Reasonable and necessary business expenses may be reimbursed when incurred for approved company activities. Examples include business travel, approved client meals, local transportation, and required work-related supplies.

3.2 Submission Deadline

Expense claims should be submitted within 30 calendar days of the transaction. Claims submitted after 60 days require additional approval from the employee's department head.

3.3 Receipts

Itemized receipts are required for individual expenses above INR 1,000. For expenses of INR 1,000 or less, employees should retain supporting evidence where available.

3.4 Travel

Business travel should be approved before booking whenever practical. Economy-class air travel is the standard for flights under 6 hours. Accommodation should normally be selected from the company's approved hotel range or within the applicable travel allowance.

3.5 Non-Reimbursable Items

Personal entertainment, traffic fines, minibar purchases, upgrades made for personal preference, and expenses without a legitimate business purpose are generally not reimbursable.

RAG Retrieval Keywords

expenses, reimbursement, 30 days, 60 days, INR 1,000, receipts, travel, economy class, non-reimbursable

4. Employee Conduct and Performance

4.1 Professional Conduct

Employees are expected to communicate respectfully, protect confidential information, avoid conflicts of interest, and comply with applicable company procedures. Harassment, discrimination, retaliation, threats, and deliberate misuse of company resources are prohibited.

4.2 Conflicts of Interest

Employees must disclose actual or potential conflicts of interest to their manager or HR. Outside activities must not interfere with job responsibilities or misuse confidential company information.

4.3 Performance Reviews

Formal performance reviews are conducted twice each year. Managers should discuss objectives, achievements, development areas, and agreed actions with employees. Employees are encouraged to provide comments as part of the review process.

4.4 Performance Improvement Plan

When performance does not meet established expectations, the manager may initiate a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP). A standard PIP period is 60 days, although HR and management may approve a different period based on the circumstances.

4.5 Policy Questions

Employees who need clarification about a policy should contact HR or consult the latest approved version of the HR Policy Handbook. If two policy documents conflict, HR should confirm which document governs.

RAG Demo Tip

This document contains deliberately specific facts—such as 24 annual-leave days, 3 remote-work days, INR 1,000 receipt threshold, and a 60-day PIP—that make it useful for testing retrieval accuracy and grounded question answering.
